That Report.

Washington, 28.—To-morrow the sub-committee of the House foreign affairs committee, which has had to the recursion in charge, will present its report to the full committee. This report has been prepared by Chairman Williams, assisted by Mr. Rice of Massachusetts. Both gantlemen are extremely reticent as to the character of the report, but there is reason to believe it will not be demonst to believe it will not be demonst. of the whole, the amendments making changes in respect to the retirement of naval officers and promotion on the retired list, and allowing any vacancy among rear admirals to be filled by the President. The nomination of Captain Wall as commodore was accordingly ruled out. The amendment making changes in respect to the report, but there is reason to believe it will not be damaging to the report at their mines early to-morrow, when the contractors begin work.

New York, 28.—The number of deaths reported up to noon to-day and the question whether any American minister or other officials had Wall as commodore was accordingly ruled out. The amendment making a prohibition against promotion to the grade of commodore immediately operative, instead of on July 1st, 1883, as proposed by the House, was objected to by Williams, and voted down by less than a quorum of 13 to 18.
